Message from the Hon Kristy McBain MP

Thank you for reading the first edition of my regular Eden-Monaro Business and Community Grants Bulletin for a new parliamentary term.

I am passionate about grant funding as a vehicle to make our community a better place to live. This type of funding continues to be important as we continue to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic, several flooding and storm events, as well as the aftermath of the bushfires.

I have highlighted throughout the bulletin many of the Volunteer and Stronger Communities Grant recipients recently awarded and other community projects. These well-deserving organisations and groups play an important role supporting our vibrant and inclusive communities. I am pleased to be able to provide these grants so that they can continue to make a difference across the region.

This bulletin provides details of over 270 grant opportunities from Local Government, the NSW Government, and the Australian Government that are currently open for application. It also includes private and philanthropic grants. Included in this edition is NSW and Australian Government assistance following further floods and storms across Eden-Monaro. Also, highlighted are a range of NSW Government vouchers for individuals and families.

As new grant opportunities and funding rounds become available, I will highlight them in future bulletins. I trust you will find this information useful.

As always my office is here to help you find the support you need. Please email me kristy.mcbain.mp@aph.gov.au or call my Queanbeyan (02 6284 2442) or Bega office (02 6492 0542) and we will do our best to assist.

Kind regards

THE HON KRISTY MCBAIN MP
MEMBER FOR EDEN-MONARO

PS. A new round of Volunteer Grants is opening soon. Please ensure you are signed up to receive grants emails as we will send out more information in coming days.

We acknowledge the Ngunnawal, Ngambri, Wiradyuri, Ngarigo and Yuin people as Traditional Owners of Country in the Eden-Monaro Electorate. We recognise their continuing connection to lands, waters and communities and pay our respect to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures; and to Elders past, present and emerging.

This bulletin is intended as a guide only. Please check information directly with the grant providers.

Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment is a lump sum payment to help you during the time you can not work and earn income because you have to:

- self-isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19;
- you're caring for someone who has to self-isolate or quarantine due to COVID-19.

You have to self-isolate or quarantine for one of the following reasons:

- you have coronavirus (COVID-19);
- you're a close contact of a person who has COVID-19;
- a child you care for who is 16 years or under, is a close contact of a person who has COVID-19;
- you're caring for someone who has COVID-19;
- you're caring for someone with disability or a severe medical condition who must self-isolate or quarantine because they're a close contact of a person with COVID-19.

You're a close contact if you either:

- usually live with the person who has tested positive with COVID-19;
- have stayed in the same household for more than 4 hours with the person who has tested positive with COVID-19 during their infectious period.

Description

Applications are open for grant funding under the Saluting Their Service Commemorative Grants Program. The program is designed to preserve Australia's wartime heritage; involve people around the country in a wide range of projects and activities that highlight the service and sacrifice of Australia's service personnel in wars, conflicts and peace operations; and promote appreciation and understanding of the experiences of service and the roles that those who served have played in shaping the nation.

There are 2 categories of grants available under the program:

- Community Grants (STS-CG)

Grants to a maximum of $10,000 are available for local, community-based projects and activities.

- Major Grants (STS-MG)

Grants between $10,001 and $150,000 are available for major commemorative projects and activities that are significant from a national, state, territory and/or regional perspective.
